

Fort Scott National Historic Site

presents
Frontier Days
September 27 and 28, 2008

featuring
Frontier Crafts and
Indian Dancing

Schedule of Activities

- 9:00 Flag Raising
- 10:00 Flour, Sweat, and Tears (Bakehouse Demonstration)
- 11:00 Down the Barrel (Muzzleloading Demonstration)
- 12:00 American Indian Games
- 1:00 American Indian Dancing
- 2:00 Guided Tour
- 3:00 Little White Lyes (Soapmaking Demonstration)
- 4:00 Flag Retreat
- 6:30 Evening Program-American Indian Dancing (Saturday only)

Throughout the day

Indian Crafts

- Hide painting, shield painting, ribbon art
- Indian games
- Sign Language

September 27 is Public Lands Day

In observance, no entrance fees will be charged that day only.
September 28-entrance fee is $3.00 per adult, 16 and above
Children 15 and below are free.

Attention: Boy Scouts

All Boy Scout troops who attend this event will be able to earn a unit certificate in the Scout Ranger program by doing the following for a total of five hours participation.

- Field testing our new Junior Ranger Program
- Participating in a service project
- Taking a ranger guided tour of the fort
- Attending Indian Dancing and one other program. (could attend evening program instead of 1:00 program)
- Assisting in a flag ceremony

Also offering

Indian Lore Merit Badge

The Indian Crafts and Games will fulfill partial requirements for this badge

Rifle Shooting Merit Badge

The Muzzleloading Demonstration will fulfill partial requirements for this badge

Please call Barry Geertsen to register your unit.

620-223-0310

or email barak_geertsen@nps.gov

Those who are truly ambitious could get their Scout Ranger patch by participating ten hours but it would probably require participation over two days. Overnight camping is available at Gunn Park. Contact Barry for more details.